Since this Execution, according to the Severity uſually exerciſed in theſe Caſes here, all his Relations and Friends have been privately put to Death.

Laſt Sunday about Noon, three Shocks of an Earthquake were felt here, which however did no Damage.

The French Conſul continues ſtill in Chains, but has been removed from the Common Priſon to his own [illegible].

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That in the Nights of the 7th, 8th and 9th Inſtant, ſome Villains attempted to break into the Houſe of Lady Clifton of Clifton Hall near Nottingham, and one of thoſe Nights were drove off, and purſued by George Bentley, one of her Servants, and very nearly eſcaped being taken; but the next Night, as the ſaid George Bentley was returning from Nottingham, he was attacked and pulled off his Horſe by a Villain; but proving too ſtrong, he cried out; upon which a Second came up, ſaying hold him faſt till I come, and we'll ſtop him from running after us again at Clifton Hall; but the young Man got clear of them both. That on Monday Night after, the following anonymous threatening Letter was laid at the Kitchen Door, (which ſeems to have been wrote by ſome one of the Villains,) directed, "For "yong feer nout."

"Yongue Feernought prepare thy Sen for to go "to the Devle thou Son of a Bich thou kild that "Man ith Woke and Dam thy Soul Deth is thy "Portion by Nite or Day if ever whe leet of thee "and that Bich oud Clifton if She does not lay "Hunderd Pound under the Hors Steps whel Beak "in to her Houſe and send her to the Devle whe "ſhall not trist won by his sen to meet thee agane "thou Son of a Bich."

CINQUE PORTS. At a Court of Loadmanage of the Cinque Ports, holden the 29th Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, 1744.

This Court being informed, That the Pilots of this Fellowſhip do ſometimes quit the Ships under their Charge at Graveſend, and hire another Perſon to pilot them to London, which Practice tends very much to the Diſcredit, as well as Injury of this Fellowſhip; It is therefore ordered by this Court, That for the future, if any Pilot of this Fellowſhip ſhall quit a Ship under his Charge before ſhe arrives at her Moorings, except on Account of Sickneſs, or that he is voluntarily diſcharged by the Captain without any Conſideration, and without hiring any other Perſon to pilot her to her Moorings, ſuch Pilot ſhall not have any Rear Turn in that whole Round.

CINQUE PORTS. At a Court of Loadmanage of the Cinque Ports, holden the 29th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1763.

Whereas notwithſtanding the Order of Court made the 29th Day of December, 1744, Complaint is made to this Court, by the Merchants trading to Virginia and Maryland, of the Behaviour of the Pilots of this Fellowſhip, in not taking Charge of Ships without a previous Agreement to leave them at Graveſend, or, in caſe of no ſuch Agreement being made, abſolutely refuſing to carry them any further, thereby obliging the Maſter to be at the additional Expence of hiring River Pilots, and very often going up to London for ſuch to conduct them to their Moorings, to the manifeſt Danger and Delay of the Ships and Cargoes, and contrary to the Meaning of the Act of Parliament for regulating the Pilots of this Society; It is therefore ordered by this Court, That if any Pilots of this Society ſhall, for the Future, be guilty of any of the Practices above complained of, or mentioned in the aforeſaid Order, ſuch Pilot ſhall, ipſo Facto, ſtand ſuſpended during the Pleaſure of the Lieutenant of Dovor Caſtle, or his Deputy.
